GAMBLERS NOT EASILY SURPRISED. DAFFLED EFFORTS OF THE SOCIETY FOR THE PRE-VENTION OF CRIME-TREACHERY EXISTING

D. J. Whitney, of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, and some other officers of the society, contemplate making a general descent upon the gambling houses of this city, being determined to break em up. The date of the attempt and the situation of the places which it is determined to visit are kept secret. The officers have not become discouraged by their failure on last Saturday night, when they had arranged to visit a number of places in company with detach-ments of police from different precincts under the command of Superintendent Walling, which they found deserted. It was plain that some one had furnished information to the proprietors of the contemplated descent. Mr. Walling said yesterhad furnished information to the proprietors of the contemplated descent. Mr. Walking said yesterday:

"We were badly sold out on last Saturday night, and it is certain that the gamblers had received information of our coming. I know just who the person was that informed the gamblers. It was not done by any of the police nor by any member of the society, but by a person whom we had used to obtain admittance to the different places. He must have made a large sum of money by his treachery. Of course we cannot compets in amount with the gamblers, who would not feel $5,000."

Speaking of the difficulty of obtaining access to the gambling houses, Mr. Whitney said: "Few of these places keep routette tables now a days; most of them play faro. The lay-out is made of three pieces united by hinges; and as all descents are undertaken by first forcing in the doors, it is an easy matter to double up the board, dron it beneath a trap-door secreted in some part of the room, sweep out of sight the other evidences of gambling, and by the time the officers reach the room there is nothing to be seen, except a number of men sitting around simoking or reading. There is an establishment up-town fitted up with a roulette table, which is so arranged that the legs can be drawn underneath it in an instant, the wheel shipped out, and the table doubled up into a small compass. This may all be gerouplished in an incredibly short space of time. Mike' Murray's house in Twenty-eighth-st, is fitted up in the rear with iron bars, like a prison, so as to defy the efforts at breaking m, or to delay the officers long enough to get their implements out of sight. Thus it will be seen that the only effectual way to surprise them is to get in their presence without their knowledge. Then we have to run the chances of treachery on the part of the person we use to get admission to the place."

"We have very good reasons for not entrusting such matters to the care of Inspector Dilks, in whose district the houses were situated?"

"We have very good reasons

Benjamin Daniels having been indicted by the Grand Jury on the complaint of Mr. Whitney for keeping a gambling house at No. 522 Sixth-ave., yesterday gave bail at the District-Attorney's office to appear when called for. William Campbell, of No. 237 West Forty-fourth-st., became his

A MINISTER KISSING THE COOK. THE REV. GUSTAV HAVERMANN, OF HOBOKEN, ALSO IN TROUBLE-THE TRUSTEES OF HIS CHURCH ASK HIM TO RESIGN.

Another New-Jersey minister is in trouble, and this time it is the pastor of one of the largest and wealthiest congregations in Hoboken, The Rev Gustav Hafermann was appointed to the pastorate the German Lutheran Church in that lace four years ago at a salary of $2,000 a year. The church stands at Hudson and Eighth-sts., and adjoining is the parsonage, a handsome red brick and brown stone house. A few months ago a young oman named Ida Stigmann, a good-looking brunette, age eighteen, who was then living with her parents in Cottage-row, Hoboken, was engaged as a cook in the family. The Rev. Mr. Hafermann, it is said, seemed much pleased with the new servant. A few weeks ago, however, the cook told her mother that the pastor often kissed her. She told her that if anything of the kind happened again to go to the pastor's wife and tell her of it. The cook did as directed, and the next day she says the pastor kissed her again. So she ran into Mrs. Hafermann's sitting room and told her what had taken place. The pastor's wife was furious, and, going into her husband's study, was heard to express her mind freely. The cook then went home to her parents, with whom she remained until a few days ago, when she left the town.

The matter coming to the cars of the church trustees, they called a meeting, which was held in the basement of the church on Monday night. No outsiders were admitted. Mr. Hafermann had been cited to appear, but be only sont a long letter acknowledging that he had kissed the cook upon several occasions; he declared that he did it out of pure Christian motives. He regarded her as a daughter.

The trustees decided that as the pastor had two daughters aiready, and as the cook had a father nette, age eighteen, who was then living with her a daughter.

The trustees decided that as the pastor had two daughters already, and as the cook had a father living also, the excuse was hardly sufficient. They appointed a committee of three to ask the

was begun on Tuesday evening of last week, and continued on Wednesday evening, was concluded last evening. The inspectors of the election of officers had reported as elected only those who received a majority of the 194 otes cast. The Executive Committee to which this report was referred, last evening recommended that a plarality vote should elect. There was nothing in the Constitution to settle the dispute, and there was a long discussion before the report of the Executive Committee was adopted. By this decision the following are the officers elected for 1880:

CREDITORS BUYING MR, HAIGH'S ASSETS. The creditors of J. Lloyd Haigh held a private meeting yesterday at the office, No. 81 John-st., to hear the report of the committee appointed at the last meeting to devise a plan of purchasing the business and reorganizing it. The committee reported that the best means of realizing the largest possible amount for the creditors would be to appoint a Purchasing Committee to buy the business point a Purchasing Committee to buy the business from the assignee, and to organize a joint stock company to continue the business. Stock should be issued to each creditor for an amount equal to his claim. The report was adopted.

A motion to reappoint this committee as the Purchasing Committee was made, but Messrs. Anderson and DeGraaf refused to serve, whereupon Thomas McElrath, W. W. Miles and Benjamin F. Blair were appointed. It was the general impression that if the contracts now on hand were filled enough would be realized in time to pay off the entire indebtedness. It was said that Mr. Anderson, who is the largest creditor, thought that if the business was properly managed the creditors would realize 100 cents on the dollar in three years' time. It was generally understood that an assessment would be required for the necessary expenses of the business, and it was suggested that Mr. Haigh would probably be the manager.

NOMINATIONS BY THE MAYOR. There was a large throng in attendance when the Aldermen met yesterday, as it was understood that the Mayor would send in nominations. The Committee on County Affairs was directed to examine the court-room used by the Surrogate, in which new tiles have been laid recently at a cost of about $3,000; these, it is alleged, have been covered with tar or some pitchy substance, which is destroying the beauty and value of the tiles. The Board of Health was requested to examine the ventilation of the various court rooms and recommend improvements. The Mayor sent in the following nominations, all of which had been sent in to the old Board of Aldermen, and laid upon the table: L. J. W. Stark to be Dook

Commissioner, in place of Jacob A. Westervelt, deceased; Arthur B. Graves for Police Commissioner, in place of De Witt C. Wheeler; Allan Campbell for Commissioner of Public Works, in place of Allan Campbell; Thomas G. McEvoy, Superintendent of Buildings, in place of Henry J. Dudley; Charles H. Winfield, Wm. J. Kane and John C. Limbeck, Excise Commissioners, in place of George W. Morton, Richard J. Morrison and Philip Merkle; Henry Murray, for Police Justice, in place of Henry Murray. All the nominations were laid upon the table by a vote 15 to 7.

THE CELLAR STAIRS IN EVIDENCE. SECOND DAY OF THE MUEDER TRIAL OF FRANZ LAMMENS AND MRS. MEIERHOEFFER IN NEWARK.

The court room at Newark was closely packed with spectators throughout yesterday, the second day of the trial of Mrs. Margaret Meierhoeffer and Franz Lammens for the murder of John Meierhoeffer. The cross-examination of Constable W. S. Randall was continued. He testified that Lammens's clothing was found in a closet in the attic. When arrested Lammens was very excited. The cellar stairs were then produced in court, and the witness pointed out blood spots upon them.

Marshal Conroy, of Orange, testified that the boy Marshal Conroy, of Orange, testified that the boy Theodore on the morning of the murder had brought him a letter and said that there was trouble at home. When Mrs. Meierhoeffer accused Lammens of the shooting he replied: "No, you got your lover to do it." He admitted having a revolver unstairs but said that he had not used it. Mrs. Meierhoeffer had related that Lammens said, "There he comes, and I am going to shoot him." The reason she had not informed her bushand was because she was afraid that Lammens would shoot her. Lammens had said to the witness. "It is a job put up on me."

Theodore Meierhoeffer, age fourteen, son of the murdered man, testified that he knew of quarrels hetween his father and mother. On the morning of the murder his mother told him that he might sleep upstairs that night if he wished. He had been sleeping with her for several nights. He slept in a little room in the attic that night. When he returned from school in the afternoon both Lammens and his mother told him that his father had gone to Newark. His mother told him that his father had gone to Newark. His mother told him that his father san who had not lived with the family for six years, said that he knew of his father because she had too many men visitors.

John C. Piersen, a teacher and boarder in the family, testified that Mrs. Meierhoeffer knocked at his door early on the morning of the murder, and said: "For food's sake, I must get rid of thus man. He has threatened to blow up the house and kill us." Lammens and the old farmer had quarrelled on the same day, the hister saying, "Get out of my way you loafer." Lammens replied, "Shut up," and said to wincess, "He is saying too much." When witness returned from school in the afternoon Mrs. Meierhoeffer, in answer to his question about Meierhoeffer, pointed to the cellar, and in a low voice said: "Dead." The witness did not look down into the cellar because he thought that if Lammens had killed one man he might kill him also. Theodore on the morning of the murder had brought

The January meeting of the Joint Executive Committee of the trunk lines was held yesterday at the office of the chairman, Albert Fink. The subject discussed were as follows: The revision of the per centage tables, the revision of the tariff to New-England interior points, the tariff from the West to the South Atlantic ports by way of Northern ports, the adjustment of the tariff to European ports by way of different tariff to European ports by way of different Atlantic ports and the changes in classification. These points were all referred, after some discussion, to different committees, which will report tomorrow. Representatives were admitted from three railways which had not previously sent delegates. These roads were the Louisville and Nashville, the Cairo and Vincennes, and the Detroit, Lansing and Northern.

Resolutions were adopted stating as an answer to the numerous inquiries received as to when a reduction in Eastern-bound through freights would be made, that the committee regards it as inexpedient to make any change in the present rates from Chicage, and points affected by Chicago, and that no change will be made unless first decided upon by the joint committee, of whose action public notice will be given.

BONDS CONCEALED IN OLD CLOTHING. A suit with some singular features was brought to trial in the Brooklyn City Court yesterday before Judge Neilson. William C. Thompson was the plain tiff, and he recovered a verdict of $762 from Michael Malone. Thompson was the adminstrator of the estate of his brother Edward, who hved in a boarding-house in State-st. He kept his money and bonds in old clothing and bundles of rags. After and bonds in old clothing and bundles of rags. After his death William C. Thompson gave away his clothing, some to a poor family and the rest to a servant girl who lived in the house where he boarded. The family mentioned returned to Mr. Thompson some papers found in the clothing, which proved to be bonds. Thompson suspected that some bonds were also concealed in the clothing given to the servant, and through the influence of a Roman Catholic priest traced it to the possession of Malone, whom he sued, with the result already stated.

TREASURER BOGERT'S ACCOUNTS.

K B. Barrow, Commissioner of Accounts of the They appeinted a committee of three to ask the pastor to resign. Mr. Hafermann received the committee at his house and said that if the congregation wished him to go away he would do so.

Shortly after these disclosures were made the father of the young woman went to the pastor's house and demanded an explanation. He received one similar to that furnished to the trustees, and he was not at all satisfied with it. C. Muller, a wealthy sugar refiner of this city, who is chairman of the board of trustees, was one of the committee that waited upon the pastor and requested him to resign. The Secretary of the Board stated last evening that the trustees were satisfied with the explanation the pastor had requested him to resign. The Secretary of the Board stated last evening that the trustees were satisfied with the explanation the pastor had made, but that they believed him to be very eccentric, and thought it would be best for him to go away.

OEVENCEERS OF THE BAR ASSOCIATION. ask the | City of New-York, who has been employed for sev ported yesterday to the Board of Managers the result of his examination to date. He found the deficiency on May 31, 1877, the end of the first year of Mr. Bogert's second term, to be $11,211 42; increase during the following year, including $318 64 interest on deposits not reported, $8,293 30; deficiency May, 31, 1878, $19,504 72; deficiency May, 31, 1879, $21,772 33; deficiency June 5, 1879, $22,749 10; deficiency on January 8, 1880, and total defalcation, $34,449 01. Mr. Barrow was ordered to continue his investigation for the years 1874 and 1875.

Gustav Schwab was appointed chairman of the Law Committee, which was instructed to proceed against the bondsmen of Mr. Begert for the recovery of the amount of their bonds.

INDIGNATION OF A CONDEMNED MAN. Edward Reinhardt, the condemned wife murdezer, confined in the Richmond County Jail, is very indignant at having been accused by John Larkin, who was recently discharged from the jail, of stealwho was recently discharged from the jail, of stealing some jewelry belonging to an Englishman. Reinhardt said yesterday: "A man in my position don't much like to be called a thief, especially it he is innocent. Now I found that jewelry lying on the floor in the corridor, and held possessions of it until I learned to whom it belonged." Deputy Sheriff Vanglin corroborated what Reinhardt said, Vaughn also stated that the accusation made against him by Larkin while he was in the jail frequently complained because he did not receive the same treatment as Reinhardt. Vaughn continued: "Larkin did not appear to understand the difference in position between himself and Eddy."

NEW-JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR-COMPENSATION FOR THE JUDICIARY—INVESTIGATIONS OF DERED

FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE. TRENTON, Jan. 20.-Assemblyman Gottfried Krueger, of Newark, a Democrat and representative of the largest German constituency of the State, to-day introduced two bills; one to repeal so much of the Crimes act as makes it a misdemeanor for a saloon-keeper to sell liquor on Sunday, and making it an offence punishable by fine only. The second repeals the act making the selling of liquor on successive Sundays an indictable offence. The measures are credited with a fair support.

Governor McCiellau this morning sent in the following nominations: For Chancellor, for six years, Theodore Runyon, of Newark, the present ince Presiding Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, Essex County, Ludiow McCarter; Mercer, John H. Stewart Middlesex, Andrew K. Coggswell; Monmouth, Alfred

The Common Pieas nominations are the same as those rejected last Winter by the Senate. The Gov did not then renew the nominations, but after the adjournment appointed the nominees to the positions. The Senate rejected them because the Governor sent in a communication with the nominations last year, declaring in favor of a non-partisan judiciary, and yet appointed none but Democrats to the Presiding Judgeships. It is not improbable that the senate will again reject them, but the matter is in the hands of the Judiciary Committee at present, as well as the nomination of Chancellor Runyon. The latter was brought up in executive session this afterpoon, but sent back to the committee to remain until a bill reducing his fees has passed. Such a bill will be introduced very soon.

A Republican cancus of both houses was held this afternoon, and two hours were spent tu considering the question of the compensation for the Judiciary. It was

Secretary of State and Supreme Court Clerk as the totals of their receipts are not less than the true figures, and whether these officials have not found a loophole for escaping the provisions of the law which was intended to make them "show their hands." A second resolution for the same inquiry into the reports of county officers was adopted. The Ju leiary Committee (consissing of Senatorr Hobart, Rabe and Francis) was appointed to make the investigation.

Senator Frencis introduced a resolution for an inquiry into the condition of the sinking fund, which has been largely invested in mortgages on farm lands by the Democrats who have controlled it for years. The Commissioners have an immense amount of real estate on their hands, and a great deal of interest is overdue.

Mr. Allan McDermott, of Hudson County, a Democrat, introduced to-day a measure providing that the State shall pay for the postage on all letters and documents sent by members during the session. The Republicans voted down the resolution twice, the Democrats generally voting in its favor.

Among the bills introduced are the following: By Senator Hobart, requirings court fees to be paid to the cierk and by him to the judge; also reducing the number of Common Fleas judges to three meach county; by Assemblyman Morehead, providing for county boards of inspectors of State Lunatic Asylams; by Senator Hobart, extending the time for insurance proxies from one year to three years.

Senator Rabe (Dem., Hudson) introduced a resolution this afternoon inquiring as to the facts concerning the deposit of about $35,000 of State funds made in the State Bank of New-Brunswick, which suspended some time ago. It is charged that the private depositors have received a large propersion of their money, while the State Treasury has recovered notaling.

RELIEVING THE COURT OF APPEALS. THE ROBERTSON BILL CONSIDERED BY THE SENATE

JUDICIARY COMMITTEE-AEGUMENTS IN ITS FAVOR BY JUDGES EARL AND DANFORTH.

ROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.] Commistee considered to day the important bill pre-sented by Senator Robertson in relation to the Court of Appeals. It is intended to diminish the number of ases sent to that overburdened court, and reads as fol-of Appeals, appeared before the commit-tee and made arguments in favor of the passage of the bill. Judge Earl said that the Court of Appeals already had 500 cases on its calendar—as many as it could attend to during the coming year. It would probably be that many cases behind hand in its work at the end of the year, some had argued that the number of judges should be increased. The judges were opposed to an increase of their num. bers; they thought that seven men was as many as could work together with advantage, This could not fall to be detrimental to the interests of

Judge Danforth said that the limitation would give the judges more leisure to consider the more important natters before the court-it would not lessen the hours of labor of the judges in the least. He thought that the $1,000 limit would be a very liberal one, it might with propriety be greater. Facility in litigation was very destrable and certainly the transaction of business by the court would be greatly quickened by the bill.

Most of the members of the Judiciary Committee apparently agreed with the judges and there is still doubt that the bill will be reported favorably.

LEGISLATIVE WORK.

OPPOSITION TO THE BRIDGE AT BUFFALO-PROTEC-TION AGAINST TISSUE BALLOTS-A CONTESTED

Albany, Jan. 20 .- The Legislature was in prepared a large number of bills for consideration. Few

In the Assembly there was a short debate over a resolution introduced by Mr. Hurd of Euffalo, asking Congress not to permit the building of a railroad bridge across the Detroit River at Detroit. The shippers of Buffalo, Mr. Hurd said, thought that the bridge would impede navigation in the Detroit River, and therefore would hurt the shipping trade of Buffalo. Ex-Speaker Alvord said that he was opposed to the passage of the resolution, as he thought the Congressmen from New-York were competent to attend to its interests without instructions from the Legislature. Mr. Hurd replied that he was amazed that any resident of the State could hear with composure such a scheme as that of the Detroit Bridge broached, and not resolve to do all in his power to prevent its accomplishment. The resolution was then vent its accomplishment. The resolution was then adopted by a vote of 79 to 5. A great deal of interest seems to be taken in the divorce laws; several bills have stready been introduced. To-day Mr. Dueil introduced another. A bill bearing on to day ar. Buck introduced another. A but observed to the married relation was also introduced by Mr. Mitchell. It is entitled "An Act to enable married women to testify in tertain cases of the wife right to festify against ther husbands." It gives the wife right to festify against the husband "if the complaint against him shall be that he has abandoned or neglected to support les wife or children or threatened to run away and leave his wife or children a burden on the public."

oned to run away and leave his wife or children a burden on the public."

Mr. Bradler, of Westchester, introduced a bill to secure uniform ballots at elections. It is intended to prevent the use of tissue ballots or any other kind of ballots that would vitlate an election.

The sent of Senator Straham (Republican) is contested by John W. Browning, his Democratic opponent.
Among the grounds of the petition for his seat which will belied by Mr. Browning te-morrow is the following extraordinary one: "That certain theological stadents in University-piace did vote for Robert H. Shahan and afterwards went to their homes in Massachusetts and Connecticut and there voted for candidates mon the same day, thus fraudulently voting in the VH. District."

Mr. Jacobs introduced a bill in the Senate to amend the charter of Brockiyn. It gives to the Mayor the appointment of the city officials after May.

HORATIO SEYMOUR AT ALBANY.

ALBANY, Jan. 20.-Ex-Governor Horatio Seymour arrived here to-night. His presence became voiced about, and politicians attributed his coming to a desire to learn something about the conference of the Anti-Tilden Democrats here to-morrow night, which will be attended by John Kelly and other prominent members of that faction. Late in the evening it was learned that Mr. Seymour's visit was due to the fact that he was President of the State Agricultural Society, which holds its annual meeting here to-morrow. In the evening Mr. Seymour will deliver an address the society, and therefore plainty cannot intend to take part in Mr. Kelly's conference which will be held at the part in Mr. Kelly's conference which will be held at the same time. To-morrow afternoon Mr. Seymour will address a joint meeting of the Ways and Means of the Assembly, and the Finance Committee of the Senate, in favor of a bill appropriating several thousand dollars for the suppression of pleuro-pneumonia among cattle. Henry Borgh, the president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Ammais, is here with a bill making the vivisection of animals by medical men a misdemeanor. It will be presented to the Legislature to-morrow.

BASE-BALL NOTES,

The number of League clubs has been inereased to eight by the admission of the Worcester Club. Four are Eastern clubs and four Western. The Nationals, of Washington, have also made application for admission, but will probably not be admitted. Man-ager Bancroft, with Woods, Knight, Sullivan, Irwin and Whitney, has arrived home from the South. Knight went to Philadelphia, Sullivan, Irwin and Woods to Boston, and Whitney to Lowell, Mass. Nichols, Bennett, Foley and Bushong remained in New-Orleans. Nichols and Bennett have been engaged by the Wright Club. and Foley and Bushong have accepted engagements with the R. E. Lee Club. These players will do the pitching and catching for the two clubs, and will remain n the South until the latter part of April, Manager Baneroft will return to New-Orleans after the close of next season and manage a club there. Bancroft will return to New-Orieans after the close of next season and manage a club there. The batting of Foley and Woods on the trip has been somewhat remarkable. In the last two games at New-Oricaus they were both credited with glaft base hits.

Joseph Quest, the second-baseman of the Chicago Club, arrived in Chicago yesterday from San Francisco. Filmt and Gore are the only members of the team in Chicago; they are taking daily gymnasium exercises. Detroit is trying to secure a professional team for next season, with Muruan, who played with the Bostons in 1877, and with the Rochesters last season as captain and manager. George Wright is trying to settle the matter between himself and the Providence management, so that he can play in Boston during the coming season. He has been offered the position of short-stop in the Boston him. Douglas Aldson, who is well known in this city, is residing at Bucyrus, Ohlo, He has written a letter to the managers of the Chicinat Club, naking them to engage him as change catcher, J. O'Couner, the well-known in folessioual catcher of this city, who piayed with the New-Bedford (Mass.) Cab last season, has been engaged by the Dubuque (Iowa) Club for the coming season.

PRISON HORRORS IN KENTUCKY.

CONVICTS SLAUGHTERED BY FOUL AIR AND UN-WHOLESOME FOOD.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 20 .- A dispatch from Frankfort, Kentucky, gives the report of the Prison Sanitary Committee made yesterday to the Kentucky Legislature, on the condition of the Penitentiary. It describes a deplorable state of affairs. The committee says that there are eight convicts conflued there who cannot live longer than a few months. There are at are in a state of debibty and weakness practically unfitting them for duty or work. The rest of the convicts do not present a healthy appearance, and seem affected by the injurious influences which have prostrated the others. The causes of this state of off its are found by the committee to be numerous. The penitentlary grounds are badly drained, and the sewerage is so defective that in damp weather water stands in portions of the incloin damp weather water stands in portions of the incio-enre, from which arises a unlatar rendering the air im-pure. The pards, cells and workshops are overcrowded, and the accumulation of filth and general inck of clean liness within the prison contribute to the generation of decase. There is a general lack of venthation in the houses and cells. The committee expresses the opinion that one of the direct causers of the unhealthiness of the convicts is due to their not being supplied with a suffi-cient variety of wholesome food.
